The Legend

-To Rick-

Well here we are finishing up four years of this grind. We sure had lots of fun in our high school years. I hope our friendship never grows dim as goes out. You are the best buddy I have got. Well I make like a door and close.

To Rick -

Well I don't think you'll be in another one of my art classes, but I really enjoyed having you in this one - Best of luck always

Chuck Lyons

Dear Rick
I guess I'm going to miss 'come September' I've had lots of fun with you in the past 2 years - especially the last week! (Even if it did mean we flunked science!). Take good care of yourself and I hope to see ya in the future - Rick, lots of luck in the future -
Lots of luck

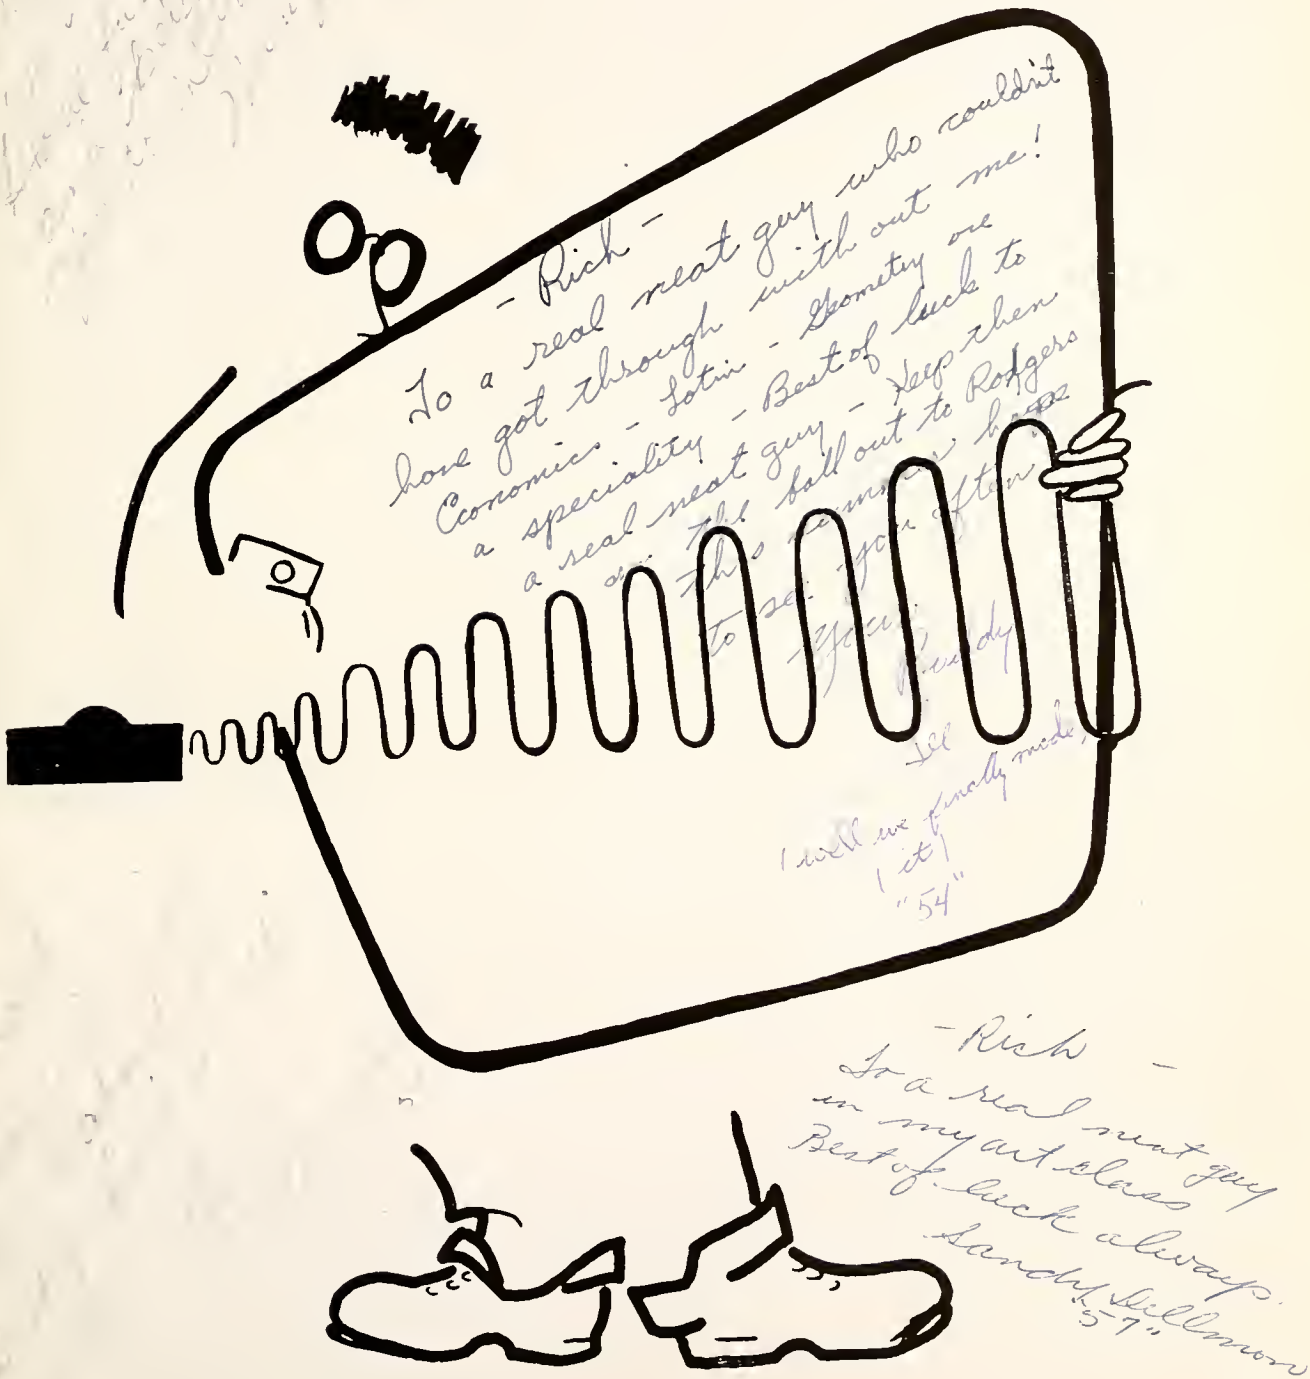
THE 1954 LEGEND



THE 1954 LEGEND

NORTH SIDE HIGH SCHOOL
FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

Join the parade! Join the parade! Hurry! Hurry! The Legend Staff invites you to march along as we advance through the pages of the 1954 Legend.

Following the slogan, "Marching Along Together," Redskins encourage the idea of co-operation and team-work. When new freshmen entered the halls of the Big Dome, upperclassmen helped the "greenies" fall into step. Thus, the golden rule became a part of our pattern.

Harmony with our teachers, classmates, and our friends outside of school was an essential part of the slogan. Reviewing the sports events, all of us realize the value of team-work; if we continue to work side by side, better results can be obtained.

By taking part in activities, students joined parades down new avenues. Gradually, we learned how to work with and get along with all types of people. It is easy to see that the teen-agers of today must match their paces with all people if there is to be a brighter future for the world.

Becomes Redskins' Motto

Parade Forms In The Halls As Students Pass Classes

Passing classes provides a chance for students to walk and talk with their friends once again. The study hall corridor, pictured below, will always remain a busy place between bells.

Gaining experience in meal planning, Home Economics students invited members of the faculty to a special dinner. This event was just one of the many projects of the class.

Eager To Learn From And Work With Their Teachers

Fans Matched Paces To Sports Events

George Taylor, North Side guard, leaps high to add two more points to help the Redskins' thrilling victory over the Central Tigers, 54-52.

After receiving the title of Miss Victory in a beauty contest staged at the Junior pep-session, Larry Vincenski is crowned by Virginia Wedler. His partner, Lolly Luhman, was named Mr. Victory.

Classrooms Open Gateway To Knowledge

Above—Discussing an Economic problem, Dick Young, Gale Wiesmer, Mary Jo Bookout, Louise Ruchman, and Mr. Harry Young listen while Jim Luellen tells his view points on the subject.

Right—Marguerite Buhr and Gale Wiesmer receive valuable pointers on sewing from Home Economics teacher, Miss Mary Dilgard. Patsy Hamrick is busy at the sewing machine.

Left—Parents became a part of the procession throughout the school year. "Back-to-School Night" provided a special time for them to visit the various classrooms.

Below—Participating in a skit for the celebration of the 100th year of the Fort Wayne Public School System are Hugh Glock, Sue Springer, Bob Platt, Joe Christman, Arnold Duemling, and Nancy Olinger.

As North's Parents Joined The Parade

Big Domers Traveled 'Program Lane'

On this avenue we can step out of the parade for awhile and hear some musical selections sung by members of the Triple Trio: Dave Bleeke, Randy Bandor, Bill Lee, and Ronald Trowbridge. This act was a special feature of Varsity Varieties.

And Crowded Halls At Intermission

Between acts of the many programs presented at North Side gave the audience time to step out to the refreshment stand for something to drink. Others discussed the production with their friends, while eagerly awaiting the next scene.

A great interest was aroused in television after Fort Wayne's TV station began operation. Members of Junior Forensic League, watching a favorite program, are Neil Lantz, Laura Hubbard, Mary Poe, Gwen Myers, Ruth Pontius, Gretchen Callihan, and Kay Perrin.

Often North Siders Followed A Path

To Television Or A Favorite Hangout

After school many Redskins can be found getting a bite to eat while discussing the latest news. Carole Scott, Janie Thomas, Dave Burg, Jim Luellen, Carl Williams, Sue Tenny, and Roberta Bash seem to be getting a big laugh over something especially funny.

New Chief, Head Squaw Lead Big Parade

When the beat of tom-toms began to sound through the bright September air, Mr. O. Dale Robertson took his place as chief of the tribe. He has led the Redskins in the manner of a true chieftain . . . like a teacher who gives advice and keeps things running smoothly. He has done a fine job of preserving the old customs which have been carried on at North Side for many years. In short, he has performed his duties in such a way as to explain the reason for his name being permanently placed high on the Totem-pole of North Side fame.

"With heart and hand that move together, and feet that run on willing errands," Miss Gross reigns second in command of the spacious wigman by the shining St. Joe Water. Patience, wisdom, and tact have become the symbol of our dean, and students find her a kind and sympathetic friend.

School Administration Lights Students' Paths

Each member of North Side's educational parade must have a piloting force which conducts him down the long path of knowledge until his day of graduation. This great source of light and guidance is the Public School Administration, headed by Aaron T. Lindley, superintendent. Principals, deans, and faculty members of each school are a vital part of the group, and without any one of them, the school system would fail in its purpose.

The Parent-Teachers' Association plays a very important part in the proper functioning of our schools. Through their meetings, new plans are formed for raising funds to finance school projects.

Keeping records and doing other necessary routine work, the office personnel do a large part in helping our school system run smoothly, and efficiently.

All of these leaders are a vital part of the parade at North Side.

SUPERINTENDENT A. T. LINDLEY

Below—Office helpers are some of the most important persons of the Administrative group. Mrs. Lillian Graham and Miss Mary Waller, who are shown here at the files in the Dean's office, offer Miss Gross and Mr. Robertson much valuable assistance.

Below—This year's officers of P-T. A. were, left to right, Mrs. Paul Hosler, secretary; Mrs. William Willcutts, president; Mr. Charles Clark, second vice-president; Mrs. Carl Schlatter, first vice-president; and Mrs. John R. White, treasurer.

Janitors And Cafeteria Workers Have Big Job

Serving North Side without thought of recognition, janitors, cooks, and cafeteria help work long hours each day to keep our school running smoothly. Each morning, long before most students arrive at school, the janitorial staff is busy making the building as clean and comfortable as possible. They are always on hand throughout the day to meet any emergency which might arise and often must stay late at night to clean up after a dance, game, or other school function.

Early in the day the kitchen staff begins to prepare a well-planned lunch to keep Redskins healthy. Under the capable direction of Miss Bean, the cooks are constantly trying to bring new and varied foods into the North Side diet.

These two groups certainly deserve the appreciation of every North Sider.

Top right—Our hard working janitors pause a moment. They are, kneeling, Herbert Weitsman; and standing, Ralph Chambers, John Peterink, and Fred Menzie.

Bottom right—Cafeteria workers are, sitting, Dorothy Mammons and Freida Witte. Standing are Eleanor Erhardt, Cleo Dennis, Gladys McCullough, Perte Dumbould, Bessie Schlosser, and Agnes Pate.

Another slate of capable officers was chosen to lead the class of '54, and Miss Bash and Mr. Smuts were again selected as senior class advisers. Class officers were, pictured left sitting, Miss Marian Bash, adviser; Jean Cour, social council; Mr. Ruthford Smuts, adviser; and Natalie Martin, social council. Standing are Barrie Delp, vice-president; Norman Armstrong, president; Jack Bradshaw, social council; and Tom McComb, secretary-treasurer.

Class of 1954 Recalls Year's Activities

As student leaders, the class of 1954 successfully accepted the responsibility of North Side leadership during the past year. The elected officers got right to work planning the senior banquet. Beautifully decorated tables offered a perfect setting for the entertaining program, and speeches by Dave Burg and Debby Hacker and musical solos by Gladys Morrell and Marilyn Smith reminded everyone present of the wide variety of talent in the class of 1954.

The senior play, "Annie Get Your Gun," kept audiences laughing from the first scene to the last curtain call. Mary Jo Bookout portrayed Annie, a rough and ready girl from the backwoods country.

As the weather grew warmer, the Senior Prom became the main topic of conversation around the Big Dome. When the long-awaited night finally arrived, many dreams became reality to the dancing couples.

Near the end of the semester editors Norm Hessert and Janet Fuhrman came out with the 1954 Legend. The yearbook ended long months of work for the staff of writers, artists, and photographers.

Senior Day and the Senior Will made every senior aware that his high school days had come to a close, and it wasn't long before the class of 1954 was marching from North Side into the future.

"Hail and Farewell," the 1954 Senior banquet will remain one of the highlights of this year. Many "celebraties" were at the speaker's table, including Tom McComb, Miss Victoria Gross, Supt. Aaron T. Lindley, Mary Jo Bookout, and David Burg.

Annual Poll Names

Each year the members of the senior class choose, by means of a poll, the outstanding members of the class in different fields. The class of 1954 chose Jean Cour and Barrie Delp, shown talking with Miss Elizabeth Little, as the most popular girl and boy. Jean, who was president of the class in her junior year, was also chosen the best girl citizen. Miss Little was named the most popular female teacher. Choosing a most popular teacher was added to the poll this year.

Winning as the best boy citizen was Norman Armstrong, this year's senior class president; Norman was also chosen the most courteous boy. Student Council president Dave Berg is pictured with Gladys Morrell, the best girl singer. Dave has been called upon to speak before the student body many times and was named the best boy speaker. Receiving the most votes on the poll as the best girl speaker was Mary Jo Bookout, the winner of many speech awards at North Side.

Outstanding Seniors

Cheerleader Janet Fuhrman was named the most courteous girl. Besides cheering the Redskins on to victory, Janet is the assistant editor of this year's Legend. Another publications worker is Nancy Poling, who along with Jack Bradshaw were chosen the girl and boy most likely to succeed. Nancy has served as editor-in-chief of the Northerner for two semesters.

Tom McComb, who has had a major role in many musical productions at North Side, received the most votes as the best boy singer. A big role in North Side athletics was played by Larry Koehl, chosen the best boy athlete. He is seen relaxing out at Sandys along with Mr. John Sinks and Carolyn Reiter. Seniors picked Mr. Sinks the most popular male teacher; Carolyn, who has her plaque in G.A.A., won as the best girl athlete.

Junior Class

From the moment they made their debut as upperclassmen and assumed the dignity suitable to their station, the Juniors knew they must endeavor to prove themselves worthy of this status. Their leadership, both social and athletic, has been much in demand. These Juniors have answered their call well and led the class this year, pictured seated at left, Mr. Charles Clark and Miss Mary Dilgard, class sponsors, with vice-president Tom Adams. Standing are Bill Townsend, social chairman; Gail Goodwin, president; and Bill Lee, secretary-treasurer. The class has demonstrated that it is fully capable of dropping the title Junior and assuming the serious role of a high school Senior.

Sophomore Class

Freshman Class

Early fall found quite a large group of freshmen bubbling over with sincere excitement and enthusiasm. Arriving at Tepeeland, these frosh discovered an entirely new routine whirling about them. Amidst all the hub-bub of circles, corridors, and schedules, the class of '57 was confused and bewildered, but secure in the knowledge that they would reach the heights again. Without lower-classmen, all the extra spark of life would be lost! Capably leading their class during the first trying year were, seated left, Pete Lundell, president; Miss Huffman, sponsor; and Dave Carpenter, secretary-treasurer. Standing: Dick Taylor and Doug Glock, social committee members. Vice-president Judy Stackhouse and social chairman Steve Clark were absent.

Student Council

Through the Student Council is expressed the opinions and desires of the student body; it is truly the voice of the Redskins. This democratic body serves as a connecting link between the faculty and students of North by constantly striving to promote closer mutual relationships.

Although unknown to many, the students in the Council are the unseen force behind many of the school activities, and upon their shoulders rests the responsibility for the success of these projects. Such annual projects as Get Acquainted Day, Back-to-School Night, Courtesy Week, and Junior High Day are designed to stress good welfare and courtesy throughout the school.

Officers who were chosen to serve during the past year included David Burg, president; Natalie Martin, vice-president; Carol Smith, secretary; Jerry Gaff, treasurer; Larry Stolte, sergeant-at-arms; and Nancy Poling, parliamentarian.

Cowan's Gridders Win City Championship

Coach Cowan's 1953 grid machine lived up to preseason expectations as they conquered all city foes. The Redskins, who compiled a 5-4 season record, won three city tilts, making them city champions, but lost some hard fought games with other members of the rugged Northern Indiana Conference.

Seniors on this year's squad who will be missed by head coach Bob Cowan are Dick Kowalczyk, John Kain, Larry Stolte, Gary Gerardot, John Fisher, Bob Heiber, Barrie Delp, Jim Sines, Ron Thompson, Larry Koehl, Jim McGarry, and Norm Armstrong; while Roland Aldridge, Dave Ellison, Ed Richards, Don Derrow, Frank Schollett, Jack Vore, Jack Mossburg, Dean Baughman, and Jack Heath will play a large part in next year's success.

Redskins whose names appeared on the all city first team were Barrie Delp, Jack Mossburg, and Jim McGarry.

Delp was chosen honorary captain of this year's squad, while Jack Mossburg was voted as the team's most valuable player.

Hill And Dalers Prove Class Of N. I. C. In 1953

North Side's cross country team continued its fine record in the city, conference, and state again in 1953, as they have done in the years passed.

This year's hill and dalers won the Sectional crown, which was run at Franke park; they were second in the N. I. C. conference competition and placed tenth at Indianapolis in the state finals, where they competed against the state's top performers.

Besides these major meets, North, under the direction of Coach Rolla Chambers, finished second in both the Indianapolis Shortridge and Marion Invitational meets.

Charles Snyder and Dave Bandt were North's one-two punch this year, as both boys ran very close to the ten minute time for the two mile run. Charlie, who won the Sectional race, finished a strong seventh at state meet and was elected honorary captain of the team by his team mates.

Seniors on the squad who will be missing from next year's roster are Charles Snyder, Dave Bandt, Jim Harford, and Bob Powell.

Those upon whom Coach Chambers will rely next year are Henry Chapman, George Taylor, Wayne Bauer, and Eugene Evans. Showing a lot of promise and having a good chance of working their way up to the varsity are Harvey Baker, Chris Jensen, Fred Willett, and Jack Quas.

Bottom—With the meet over, and North declared Sectional Champs, Wayne Bauer, Hank Chapman, Coach Don Kemp, Eugene Evans, and Dave Bandt start thinking about the State meet at Indianapolis.

Hoopsters Have Great Season; Rack Up Five Championships

Hinga's Hustlin' Hotshots proved to be one of the best teams North Side has ever produced as they posted a 23-4 record and won five championships. Foremost among their many achievements in the 1953-54 season was topping the Eastern Division of the Northern Indiana Conference; it marked the first time that North had ever won the conference title.

The Redskins also continued their domination of the city teams by annexing the city crown for the third straight year. Another trophy which the Tribe brought back to "Teepeeland" was that presented for winning the Frankfort Holiday Tourney. The Red Wave copped the sectional tourney for the first time in four years as they edged Concordia in an overtime thriller, 59-56. They also won the third regional crown in the school's history and the first one in 12 years.

Another honor which was bestowed the team was the "best in the state" rating in the final Associated Press poll of the season; throughout the season, the cagers had been included in the top ten in the state.

Although Henry Chapman copped individual scoring honors, team balance was a trademark of the Redskins. Every member of the starting five, Chapman, Charley Lyons, Ron Aldridge, Larry Koehl, and George Taylor, was leading scorer of at least one game.

The All-City team was dominated by North too, as Koehl, Chapman, and Lyons were chosen to the mythical squad; and the future looks bright for Big Domers as Koehl is the only senior on the roster. He will be missed next year.

Reserves Show Promise, Grab Decatur Tourney

North Side's reserve basketball squad came through the 1953-54 season in grand style, posting a 10 won and 10 lost record. Under the able coaching of Bob Traster, the Braves displayed fine team play and sportsmanship throughout the season.

One of the highlights of the year was the winning of the invitational tourney at Decatur. The Trastermen beat Concordia, 38-34, in the afternoon and bopped Huntington, 44-36, for the championship.

Dick Hickox was the team's leading scorer despite the fact that he was added to the varsity and missed the final four games.

Other boys who helped carry the load and who should help Coach Hinga next year were Dick Berghoff, Bruce Applegate, Bob Meister, and Frank Schollett. All of these boys will be juniors next September, and they will add a lot of height to the Redskin roster.

Left—Larry Koehl goes high into the air to score against South Side as the Redskins romped over the Archers, 66-52, for the second time.

Frosh Post 9-5 Record Against City, N.I.C. Foes

That the prospects for North's basketball future look bright is proven by the successful season posted by the Freshman Redskins this year. Under the able direction of Coach Bob Edwards, the Frosh posted an enviable 9-5 record over city and conference foes. They also reached the semi-final round of the N.I.C. tournament before being eliminated. During the tourney they beat South Bend Central's freshman quintet.

Coach Edwards had as his starting lineup Jesse Lang, Pete Lundell, Bill Ortleib, Don Stager, and Jack Mounsey. Lundell was the team's leading scorer despite the fact that he suffered a broken ankle in the tournament.

Ortleib and Stager gave Lundell plenty of help in the scoring department, with the entire squad looking very sharp at times.

Right—It's two more points for North as 'Bama Aldridge hooks one in against the Leo Lions in the sectional. North won, 49-35, in a slow game.

Thinlies Display Power Against State's Top Foes

North's cindermen, coached by Rolla Chambers, have been a powerhouse in track circles for years, and this season was no different, as the Redskins maintained their dominance over city, area, and state competition.

Culver's Cadets were the first to fall before the Redskins, 65-35, in an indoor meet, but Elkhart spoiled North's outdoor opener, nipping them, 56-53. The "Big Red" rolled over Columbia City, 70-39, and swept two firsts in the relay races at the famed Hoosier Relays at Indiana University.

Winning the second annual North Side Relays was the next accomplishment of the tracksters, as they downed teams from all the city schools and three others including two strong Ohio squads, Lima Central and Dayton Wilbur Wright. North rolled up 78 points to second place South Side's 31½.

Concordia and Central Catholic fell to the "Red Wave" in a triangular meet just prior to the running of the N.I.C. trials at Elkhart.

Thid row—Bill Ortlieb, Jerry Bardsley, Fred Willet, Ken Slattery, Jack Quas, Frank Giest, Ed Collins, Bob Pace, Ron Thompson, and Gene Evans.

Fourth row—Bob Richard, Ron Bowman, Lynn Harp, Julian Houtz, Harvey Baker, Ed Evans, Austin Brooks, Earl Pontius, Phil Lockwood, Phil Ducat, and Don Stager.

Fifth row—Pete DeVoogdt, Mike Altekruse, Bob Meister, Dave Carpenter, Ellis Shirley, Dan Widman, Bob Brosius, and Bill Wade, student manager.

One of the 1954 tracksters top point getters this season was Jim Long, pictured at left. Jim, who ran both the high and low hurdles and was a member of the 880 yard relay team, is a senior and will be greatly missed next year. Above—Four North Siders race for the wire in the 100 yard dash as the thinliclads beat Columbia City in an early season meet. Redskins in the picture are, left to right, Doug Boschet, Jack Vore, Phil Hosler, and Ron Slater. All of these boys are underclassmen and are showing a lot of promise for Coach Rolla Chambers.

Right—Charley Lyons, North's high-jumper and pole vaulter, displays his winning form in the North Side Relays. Lyons who cleared the bar near the six foot mark consistently this year, was aided in the high-jump by Dick Esterline and Bill Ortleib and in the pole vault by Dewey Senger.

Work Key to Success

North's power this year was the result of teamwork and fine coaching; Coach Chambers has as assistants, Don Kemp, Jim Hinga, and Bob Cowan.

The material with which these coaches worked included Jack Vore, Doug Boschet, Phil Hosler, Bob Powell, Ron Slater, and Jim Wright in the dashes; while Jim Long, Ron Trowbridge, Jack Mossburg, and Bill Ortleib ran the hurdles.

Relay strength lay in Jack Vore, Jim Wright, Ron Trowbridge, and Jim Long in the 880; while Bob Powell, Jack Mossburg, Pete Lundell, and Len Snyder composed the mile relay team. George Taylor and Charles Snyder alternated in the mile relay.

The mile run was handled by Charles Snyder, Jim Harford, Wayne Bauer, Gene Evans, and Harvey Baker; and the half-mile run by Dave Bandt and Bob Bolman. The 440 has featured Len Snyder, George Taylor, and Jack Mossburg; while broad jumping chores were handled by Taylor, Phil Hosler, and Ellis Shirley.

North also boasted two record breaking freshman relay teams, the half-mile composed of Ed Reader, Bob Richard, Ken Slattery, and Pete Lundell; and the mile relay composed of Lundell, Jack Quas, Bill Ortleib, and Don Stager.

Top—North Side's 880 relay team added many points to the Redskin cause this season. Members were Ed Reader, Jack Vore, Jim Long, and Ron Trowbridge.

Bottom—Another strong outfit in track circles in this area was North's mile relay team. It was made up of Jack Mossburg, Bob Powell, Len Snyder, and Pete Lundell.

Below—Proof that things look bright on the cinders in the future was the fine frosh mile relay team coached by Don Kemp. Members were, kneeling, Bill Ortleib and Jack Quas; and, standing, Don Stager and Pete Lundell.

Redskin Racqueteers Shine On Court Again

Under the able direction of Coach Arthur Rhoads, the tennis team completed one of its most successful seasons. The racqueteers tied Michigan City for fourth place in the conference by posting a 4-4 record.

Harvey Himmelstein, Karlton Holle, and John Williams, last year's veterans, received letters, as did Alan Rosenbaum and Ed Stone. Holle was elected captain of the squad.

The outlook for next year is bright as the netters will have Himmelstein, Williams, Rosenbaum, and Stone back, as well as prospects Harry Garnet, Ed Warsaw, and Jon Micu.

School Spirit And Team Backing Reached A New High This Year

"We're from North Side; couldn't be prouder. If you can't hear us, we'll yell a little louder."

In this and other yells, Redskins gave vent to their unquenchable fire and enthusiasm throughout the basketball season. The loyalty, spirit, and good sportsmanship shown by the student body as a whole was outstanding. It gave North Side the honor of winning the City Sportsmanship Trophy for the first time since its inception.

This year, North Side boys and girls formed organized cheering blocks. The girls' block was the first to become a reality. A total of 112 girls signed up at the beginning of the season and met shortly afterwards to decide on their outfits—white Hendan blouses, red ties and gloves, white head bands and red feathers for tournament games, and dark skirts.

Their adviser, Mr. Rhoads, and the cheerleaders received much co-operation from the group, and soon the girls were able to begin the difficult task of forming letters. Whenever they performed they were a tremendous success.

Not to be outdone, the boys decided to form their own block. Jim Hollman and Jim McGarry, the instigators of the group, got together 100 boys, who chose to wear white shirts, and dark trousers. Terry Cockrell, Pete Paulison, and others prepared clever skits which were presented before games and during the half-time. Several snappy yells originated in the boys' block and were used frequently throughout the tourney.

The blocks won much praise from other Indiana high schools and many of their ideas were copied by the city high schools. Without the help and co-operation received from the entire faculty and student body, the success of both blocks would have been an impossibility.

Cheer Leaders Get Pep, Enthusiasm From Fans

"The team is in a huddle," shout the robust Redskin cheerleaders. Reading clockwise, we see huddled close, Ann Nickerson, Sandra Schroeder, Janet Fuhrman, Patty Jo Scott, and Norma Shipley. Ann, Sandra, and Janet are seniors, and we'll miss their pep and fight next year.

One of the most popular courses in the physical education program is swimming. Working on diving form are, on edge of pool, Dale Fulkerson, Kirk Carrington, Robert Bolman, and Don Weber. Waiting behind are Bob Skiles, Kenneth Weikel, Larry Wible, James Caywood, Stephen Pulver, Robert Gall, Art Muri, and Harry Gottfried.

Physical Education Program Offers Boys Wide Variety Of Activities

Below—Working with weights and ropes, these boys are building their bodies so that they will be in top physical condition. Many North Siders take advantage of the special development program. These boys are Karl Nochtigall, Bill Vonderau, Ron Williams, Dick Krieg, and Bill Maxwell.

Intramural Provides Competition For Boys

North Side's intramural athletic program, under the guidance of Mr. Robert Cowan, boasted another successful basketball campaign this year.

Twenty-three teams participated in this year's action, with nine of these in lightweight division. Two leagues were active in the heavyweight loop, with the teams of each league meeting to determine the winner. The North Royals and Short Straws were winners of the light and heavyweight divisions respectively.

The sportsmanship trophy, presented by the Northerner sports department, was awarded to Dean Zirkle. Those boys who received honorable mention and awarded medals were Dave Solomon, Arnold Miller, Dave Cook, and Larry White.

Girls Have Fun In G.A.A.

Girls' Athletic Association, better known as G.A.A., has just completed a very busy year. The club membership has been increased by a very active underclass group which has combined with the upperclassmen to uphold the ideals of G.A.A. These ideals are three-fold in form—sportsmanship, loyalty, and health.

Besides posting an active athletic program, G.A.A. has a host of social activities each year. Among these are a formal initiation and potluck, the freshman party, sponsoring an after game dance, and the spring banquet.

At the banquet the trophies and awards are given; letters or numerals earned by the girls during the year are presented to them at this time. Many old acquaintances are renewed and new friends made as the students and alumni are gathered together.

Bottom left—Judy Hallenbeck is the willing "victim" as Rossya Kaufman, Lolly Luhman, Margaret Fisher, Anita Goodson, and Kay Nattzger practice the techniques of life saving.

Top right—Poised on the edge of the swimming pool, ready to begin an important race—Ruth Pontius, Barbara Kemp, Karen Wagner, and Carol Humphrey demonstrate championship form. Diving is included in all swimming classes.

Bottom right—Planning future formations for the "Rippelettes" are Karen Winje, Mona Harris, Linda Crosley, Miss Margaret Spiegel, Janet Stamats, Carol Humphrey, and Marilyn Bell.

The spring banquet is not only looked forward to for the awards that are given, but also the officers for the following year are announced at this time.

This year the girls chosen to lead G.A.A. for 1953-54 were as follows: Carolyn Reiter, president; Ann Traster, vice-president; Betty Spear, secretary; and Carroll Schmitt, treasurer. Marilyn Bell, sophomore, and Marlene Hostler, junior, were chosen as representatives of their respective classes.

During the past year, much attention was focused upon the basketball tournament. Last year's champions, the class of 1954, returned to compete with a fighting freshman team and a hustling bunch of sophomores. As always, this sport was very well attended, and the competition stiff to win the basketball trophy.

Awards for G.A.A. members are given according to the number of points earned. For 150 points, the girl is given her class numerals which are to be worn on her letter sweater. When 250 points have been recorded, a white chenille letter "N" is presented to the girl. The highest award that any G.A.A. girl can receive is the state wall plaque; 350 points must be earned to receive the plaque.

A high point trophy is awarded to the girl who earns the most points in her four years.

Left—Marilyn Hartman tries for a field goal as Janis Yant, Sherry Rasp, Alice Sheak, and Dorothe Imbody eagerly await the rebound.

Lower left—Meet the champs! Seated are Doris LeFever, Carroll Schmitt, and Jackie Gardt. Standing are Betty Spear, Carolyn Reiter, Sandra Gick, and Gaynol Marsh.

Lower right—Up goes the tip! Betty Spear and Elvira Sturgis jump center, while waiting the ball are Leilani Hobkirk, Sandra Gick, Marlene Hostler, referee; Gaynol Marsh, Helen Woods, Sherry Rasp, Marlene Tracey, and Carroll Schmitt.

Some of the various organized activities enjoyed by the "squaws" are volleyball, swimming, archery badminton, basketball, softball, tennis, and track. Points may also be earned by participation in the varied unorganized activities such as golf, bowling, walking, swimming, skating, dancing, horseback riding, ping pong, basketball, or bicycling.

North Side's swimming group, the Rippelettes, had as president, Karen Winje, and as vice-president, Diana Anderson. The requirements for membership are as follows: The girl must be either a junior or senior, and she must have taken at least one semester of advanced swimming; Rippelettes is open to both swimmers and divers. They must also be able to do certain exercises in good form.

To be eligible for membership in G.A.A., a girl must have earned 25 points, 20 of which must be in an organized activity. G.A.A. had as its advisers again this year Miss Margaret Spiegel and Miss Ruth Carroll.

ACTIVITIES

National Honor Society

National Honor Society, most outstanding honorary activity at North, has established the qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service as a basis for membership; and around these characteristics revolved the year's program.

Those pictured were elected to the Society last year, while 30 new members were chosen in March. Seniors initiated include Dave Bleeke, Shirley Callihan, Phil Crabill, Barrie Delp, Pat Fleming, Jerry Gaff, Marilyn Hall, Mary Ann Harrison, Bev Holder, Karlton Holle, Joan Hudson, Barbara Hursh, Ann Kittinger, Fred Kurtz, Sharon Nulf, Louise Ruchman, Ron Scherer, Carol Smith, Marilyn Smith, Gale Wiesmer, and Dean Zirkle.

Juniors elected were Mike Anglin, Dick Boettcher, Ann Bouillet, Jim Bryce, Bill Lee, Nancy Leininger, Jean Miller, Mike Popp, and Carol Wyatt.

Left—Holding offices in National Honor Society this year were Jack Bradshaw, vice president; Nancy Poling, president; and Mary Schuelke, secretary-treasurer.

Below—Earning membership in National Honor Society during their Junior year were fifteen students. Seated—Ann Nickerson, Juanita Zerby, Debby Hacker, Mary Schuelke, Nancy Poling, and Natalie Martin. Standing—Janet Fuhrman, David Burg, Mary Jo Bookout, Jack Bradshaw, Norman Hessert, Sandra Schroeder, and Eleanor Weikart.

Behind the hand-painted "baby" costume is Marilyn Hartman and Patty Jo Scott. These girls made their outfits come to life when they did a clever tap-dancing routine to "Baby Face" and "Pretty Baby."

For not giving the maid her salary, Jack Cruse and Diane Schlatter find Ann Bouillet not willing to talk or to do any work. Jim Luellen, the doctor who has also not been paid, decides to go along with Ann's stunt.

Varsity Varieties Features 'Anchors Aweigh'

The 1953 version of "Varsity Varieties" was built around the musical theme, "Anchors Aweigh." After tryouts, a cast of 88 students were selected for the talent show, and Tom McComb served as master of ceremonies.

The first act progressed on the deck of a huge battleship. Seated on the ship, a chorus of sailors provided the music for several group acts. Some of the best remembered acts are the 1920 "flappers," the "Collegian" number, the Chinese magician act, and the finale in which A Cappella Choir appeared in their formal attire.

Mr. James Purkhiser, Mr. Raymond Beights, and Mr. William Hatt served as directors for the production.

Shirley Callihan, Janet Fuhrman, and Mary Jo Bookout go through the actions to "Mississippi Mud" as the chorus keeps in time by clapping their hands.

Mr. Harold Thomas appreciates "the pause that refreshes" as members of Booster Club take time out after a hard evening's work. Seated are Sandra Miles, Terry Sims, and Lois Brown. Standing—Mr. Thomas, Caroll Schmitt, Joyce Emrick, Jim White, Carl Messerschmidt, Helen Akins, Ken Conner, Mr. Noel Whittern, Booster Club adviser; and Dorothy Hankes.

Booster Club Backs Team

Booster Club, sponsored by Mr. Noel Whittern, strives to promote and improve school spirit and good sportsmanship. The club conducts rousing pep sessions to keep students backing the team, and earns money for its projects by handling concessions at the games. This year, Boosters sold tournament badges with team pictures on them and made and distributed red and white shakers to tournament ticket holders. They also presented to each member of the basketball team a picture of the complete team.

In order to become an active member of Booster Club, a student must be at least a Sophomore and must have earned 25 points or more by working on club projects. Awards are presented according to the number of points acquired.

Mr. Whittern outlines the plans for the next meeting to the officers of Booster Club. Seated are Lois Brown, Mr. Whittern, and Sandra Miles. Standing—Jim Campbell, Carl Messerschmidt, and Jim White.

But It's Not All Work

In 1954 the club had approximately twenty-five members. Officers for the entire year were Jim White, president; Carl Messerschmidt, vice-president; Lois Brown, secretary for the first semester; Edna Keeney, secretary for the second semester; Jim Campbell, point recorder; Marlene Rearick, pep session chairman; and Sandra Miles, Student Council representative.

Club members who have earned at least 100 points are Phyllis Williams, Betty Woods, Terry Sims, Judy Smart, Marlene Rearick, Carroll Schmitt, and Edna Keeney. Others are Helen Akins, Carole Flynn, Ken Conner, and Janice Shattuck. One point is recorded for each one-half hour's work before games or on projects, or for working one quarter of a varsity game.

Booster members getting ready for the half time rush are Terry Sims, Carroll Schmitt, Carl Messerschmidt, and Ken Conner.

Enjoying refreshments after a Booster Club meeting are Judy Smart, Carroll Schmitt, Janice Shattuck, Terry Sims, Sandra Miles, Ken Conner, May Imler, Mr. Noel Whittern, Lois Brown, Jim Campbell, Jim White, Joyce Emrick, Carl Messerschmidt, and Dick Smith.

Second row—M. McComb, M. J. Bookout, S. Hardiek, J. Mueller, S. Link, B. Weaver, J. Moore, M. A. Harrison, M. J. Martin, C. Wyatt, M. Schuelke, N. Traub, L. Luhman, C. Young, C. Smith, and L. Hausman.

Third row—A. Bouillet, J. Winkler, A. Fortner, D. Link, W. Shoot, P. Bond, T. McComb, B. Lee, J. Pierce, J. Micu, R. Bandor, D. Fardal, P. Hosler, G. Morrell and S. Tew.

Fourth row—R. Boettcher, R. Trowbridge, N. Hessert, M. Popp, M. Bookout, L. Wible, T. Adams, M. Anglin, J. Miller, R. Scherer, H. Massey, D. Bleeke, B. Delp, B. Willcutts, and F. Kurtz.

A Cappella Choir

Inspiring spirituals, gay melodies, and ethereal hymns formed the nucleus of the programs presented by North Side's A Cappella Choir this year.

Ably directed by Mr. Raymond Beights, A Cappella offered many entertaining and varied musical selections. During the Christmas season, A Cappella sang many a carol from the top of the Lincoln Tower to the citizens of Fort Wayne. Performances for civic organizations and student functions comprised a sizable portion of the choir's year.

In the spring, the choir took its annual trip to several Indiana high schools, which proved to be one of the highlights of the year. "The Seven Last Words of Christ" was the Easter Cantata.

Two special groups within the choir, the Boys' Triple Trio and the Girls' Ensemble, won many state and local honors during the past year.

North Orchestra

Under the capable direction of Mr. C. William Hatt, the North Side orchestra has helped the students of the Big Dome to develop a better appreciation of good music.

This year the orchestra played for such events as the senior play, the Fall and Spring concerts, and the commencement exercises. In addition to these performances, North Side's orchestra played for Forest Park and Franklin Grade Schools.

Orchestra has a different meaning for each of its members. To some it means the acquiring of instrumental skills, while for others it is a form of self expression. Whatever the reason may be, many students at North Side, through exercising their love of music, have gained an inward peace and appreciation of the more beautiful things that will always be a cultural influence. For them, the North Side orchestra has meant a great deal.

North Side Band

North Side's band put a note of cheer in the hearts of the basketball, football, and concert audiences this year. Besides these, the Redskin band also furnishes the music for the twirlers and for civic parades. Leadership, co-operation, ability, and enjoyment are offered to those interested in band work.

This year groups were again organized from within the band. Many honors were won by these ensemble groups in the Solo and Ensemble Contest which was held at North Side for the second consecutive year.

Teepeelanders should be very proud of their band and equally proud of their director, Mr. C. William Hatt, who has added a lot of spirit to North in his "greenie" year.

Drum Majorettes

North Side's Majorettes have again provided us with colorful entertainment at the half-times of our football and basketball games.

Under the direction of Juanita Zerby, leader, and Laura Dailey, assistant leader, our Majorettes have performed in many parades and athletic engagements during the year.

Each fifth period the twirlers could be found in the gym creating and practicing many new routines and formations. Every week found them in new costumes, presenting a new type program. The crowd was delighted with the many specialty and novelty numbers that the twirlers presented for their enjoyment.

Senior girls who will be missed next year are Laura Dailey, Carol Rhoades, Sondra Smith, Carole Stellhorn, Helen Tinkham, Juanita Zerby, and Gloria Zimmerman.

With the able assistance of Mr. Hatt, the Majorettes have marched to success and, appropriately enough, lead the parade through this 1954 Legend on its opening pages.

Top—Senior members of North Side's Twirlers were Helen Tinkham, Gloria Zimmerman, Laura Daily, Juanita Zerby, Carole Stellhorn, Carol Rhoades, and Sondra Smith.

Center—Right in step as they return from the presentation of the flag are Gloria Zimmerman, Juanita Zerby, and Carole Stellhorn.

Bottom—Smiling for the cameraman are, kneeling, Jackie Baumgartner, Donna Neuman, Marilyn Sprunger, and Beverly Schane. Standing—Claudia Meyers, Jean Hyndman, Ala Nova Lynch, Jean Bulmahn, and Marceille Staight.

First row—Judy Holmes, Janet Ball, Virginia Wedler, Bill Slattery, Judy Meyers, Carolyn Helmke, and Minton Ostertag.

Second row—Tom Adams, Karen Wagner, Bill Lee, Kay Zent, Leon Jones, Natalie Martin, Arnold Duemling, Mary Jo Bookout, Louise Ruchman, and Diane Schlatter.

Third row—Alan McMahan, Nancy Olinger, Connie Shideler, Jean Barker, Dorothy Kocher, Beverly Holder, Jean Miller, Lolly Luhman, and Terry Day.

Masque and Gavel

A toddler in the family of clubs is Masque and Gavel, an organization made up of juniors and seniors who have taken speech or dramatics.

Mr. James A. Purkhiser supervises the activities of Masque and Gavel, and assisting him is a board of directors consisting of Lolly Luhman, Sharon Nulf, Leon Jones, Jim Luellen, and Gale Wiesmer. The board of directors is headed by Bill Lee.

Masque and Gavel has sponsored many activities for the benefit of the student body as well as for the members of the club. For example, the club produced a one-act play program for the entertainment of a Redskin audience. Mr. Sizer, who is the director of the Civic Theater, was the speaker at one of the meetings. A "Nickelodeon Nights" party was the feature project of the Masque and Gavel Club.

Top left—Trying to decide on a good selection are several members of the club. Great decision appears on the faces of, sitting, Alan McMahan, Carolyn Helmke, Virginia Coffman, Ann Bouillet, Louise Ruchman. Standing are Bill Lee, Sharon Spangle, Lolly Luhman, Judy Meyer, and Dick Prentice.

Junior Red Cross is North Side's tie to the American Red Cross. Also, there is a county-wide Council, consisting of the club officers, which meets to help further high school clubs in their ambitions to be of use to the American Red Cross. Here at the Big Dome, the club has packed overseas gift boxes, sponsored an interesting program at the V. A. Hospital, and also had a very successful enrollment drive.

Their annual dance was a sock hop entitled "Snowball Soc Hop." This was presented after one of the basketball games in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Alice Nusbaum and Mr. Charles Clark are co-sponsors of the club. The officers, Barrie Delp, president; Lolly Luhman, vice-president; Diane Schlatter, secretary; and Arnold Duemling, treasurer, were chosen to lead the club the whole year.

Right—Decorating for their dance, "Snowball Soc Hop," are, kneeling, Karen Wagner and Jan Poling. Standing: Mel Bookout, Sandra Todd, Lolly Luhman, Kay Zent, Larry Wible, Barbara Crabill, Sue Kowalczyk, and Joyce Sharpe.

Row one—Sharon Nulf, Barbara Crabill, Kay Zent, Karen Wagner, John Micu, Cynthia Clark, Joyce Sharpe, Ruth Pontius, and Diane Schlatter.

Row two—Gwen Myers, Judy Harper, Carlene Hanson, Sandra Behrens, Sue Kowalczyk, Marilyn Plasterer, Mary Ann Harrison, Gaynol Marsh, Laura Dailey, Mary Poe, Patsy Blue, Sandra Todd, and Georgiana VanKirk.

Row three—Mr. Charles Clark, Carolyn Moyer, Janet Kolmerten, Nancy Hobson, Donna Baumgartner, Sally Bissel, Sue Props, Donna Crabill, Lolly Luhman, Louise Ruchman, Laura Hubbard, Ginny Poe, Lynn Hettema, and Mrs. Alice Nusbaum.

Row four—Sandra Link, Roberta Bash, Alan McMahan, Jim Pierce, Barrie Delp, Don Duff, Ed Stone, Jannie Thomas, Carol Johnson, Kara Jane Parker, Judy Moss, and Anne Robinson.

Leading Hi-Y's activities this year were Robert Anderson, chaplain; Mr. Charles Clark, club sponsor; Len Snyder, vice-president; Phil Hosler, president; and Jon Micu, secretary-treasurer.

Hi-Y Club Boasts Outstanding Programs

Being a member of Hi-Y gives boys a chance to live their pledge, "To create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community." Hi-Y, which is a branch of the YMCA, is affiliated with the State and also the National Hi-Y.

Their joint dance with Polar-Y highlighted their activities for the year, and also representatives were sent to the State Hi-Y Conference.

Under the guidance of Mr. Charles Clark, Phil Hosler, president; Len Snyder, vice-president; Jon Micu, secretary-treasurer; and Robert Anderson, Chaplain, led the club for the entire year.

Polar-Y Girls Keep Busy With Projects

Polar-Y is a branch of the Y.W.C.A., and it serves to build Christian character and friendship among the girls.

Under the direction of Miss Lorraine Foster and Miss Geneva Burwell, the club chose Mary Ann Harrison, president; Judy Connin, vice-president; and Charlotte Young, secretary-treasurer for the first semester; and Judy Connin, president; Anita Ward, vice-president; and Janet Lamb, secretary-treasurer, for the second semester.

Two dances, "Candy Cane Capers", and the tournament dance were the highlights of the club's activities. The "hanging of the greens" program and their World Fellowship contributions conclude Polar-Y's list of activities.

Joining in Christmas carols are Linda Graff, Sylvia Haiber, Pat Lane, Edna Wise, Carol Johnson, Sandra Gehring, Linda Wagner, Judy Kiernes, Sharon Rasp, Carol Rhodes, Barbara Hursh, Jean Hatch, Carolene Kyler, Ellen Terry, Kara Jane Parker, and Kathy Prairie. Alice Lambert is at the piano.

Camera Club

Many students are interested in developing and enlarging pictures. Here at North Side, their ambitions may be satisfied by joining Camera Club. Camera fans have the use of their own dark room for developing and enlarging pictures they have taken.

During the year the club presented a feature length movie as a paid assembly for their main project of the year. This movie, "Painting the Clouds With Sunshine," was presented in March.

Camera Club officers for the year 1953-54 were as follows: Jack Huffman, president; Steve Perfect, vice-president; and Carol Flynn, secretary-treasurer. Membership is open to both boys and girls, and Mr. Norman Ballinger is adviser.

Rifle Club

Ready! Aim! Fire! Very frequently Redskins hear these shouts and the firing of the rifles as Rifle Club members strive to hit the bull's eye at their range under the "Dome." The Rifle Club was formed to teach safety with guns, to encourage better sportsmanship, and to maintain better marks by aiming at a target instead of song birds. Students who are interested in this sport are greatly encouraged to join the club.

Mr. Hyrle Ivy, the adviser of Rifle Club, enjoys spending his summers at his home in Canada where he does a lot of hunting and fishing and speaks for his ability to sponsor the club. Officers of Rifle Club this year were Jesse Coil, president; Jack Biddlecome, vice-president; Tom Kurtz, executive officer; Harry Garnet, secretary; and John Norton, treasurer.

Medals and other awards are presented to the members as they advance in marksmanship. The highest award is the Distinguished Rifleman Award. And of course, all members are familiar with the Sportsman's Code. The North Side Rifle Club is proud to be a member of the National Rifle Association.

Top—Bob Arney, Ernest Armstrong, Tom Gollmer, Barry Hormann, and Dan Pontoni.

North Instrumentalists

Band and orchestra members who have as their sole purpose the fostering of a better band and orchestra by way of scholarship, musicianship, and attitude compose the North Side Instrumentalists.

N.S.I. plans social affairs and projects for each year. This year their project was the cleaning, painting, and practically remodeling of the band room. In doing this, they have helped to keep the Big Dome in tip-top shape!

Officers for N.S.I. in 1954 were Karlton Holle, president; Gene Smith, vice-president; Jackie Nash, secretary; and Don Messerschmidt, treasurer.

Members for N.S.I. are chosen each semester; they are called pledges, or better known as spikes!

Junior Forensic League

Junior Forensic League has as its membership those underclassmen who are interested in speech and speech activities.

Two of the outstanding events of the year were the Halloween play, "Under the Harvest Moon," presented in October, and the annual Christmas party held at Sandra Todd's house in December.

Those leading the club the first semester were Neil Lantz, president; Mel Bookout, vice-president; Janeen Powell, secretary-treasurer; and Nancy Kroeger, social chairman.

Officers elected to serve for the second term were Sandra Todd, president; Kay Loudermilk, vice-president; and Barbara Christie, secretary-treasurer. Miss Irene Miller served as adviser for the club.

Junior Classical League

Pledging to hand on the torch of classical civilization in the modern world, Junior Classical League members strive to acquaint themselves with the civilizations of Greece and Rome, believing this acquaintance will help them understand and appraise this world of today, a world indebted to ancient civilization in its governments, laws, literatures, languages, and arts.

This pledge of the Junior Classical League, along with encouraging students in the study of the classics and increasing the study of advanced Latin, is the purpose of J.C.L.

The club is open to all pupils in advanced Latin, and those planning to study advanced Latin have been accepted as pledges.

Members of J.C.L. helped to plan and promote "Continental Capers," the joint language club dance, held this year.

The club advisers are Miss Judith Bowen and Miss Lorraine Foster; heading the group for the first semester were Juanita Zerby, senior consul; Howard Massey, junior consul; Pat Powell, scriba; and Eleanor Weikart, questor. Second semester officers were Eleanor Weikart, senior consul; Howard Massey, junior consul; Phil Bond, scriba; and Juanita Zerby, questor.

Top—Seated are Eleanor Weikart, Hugh Glock, and Juanita Zerby. Standing are Phil Bond and Howard Massey; these are the five students who took advanced Latin and were members of Junior Classical League.

Bottom—Looking over a model of an ancient ship are Howard Massey, Juanita Zerby, Miss Lorraine Foster, Hugh Glock, Eleanor Weikart, and Phil Bond.

Los Sodales

Los Sodales, our Spanish Club under the guidance of Miss Marie Ehle, gives the Spanish pupils a chance to learn more of Spain, its people, its customs, arts and sciences. It broadens their knowledge and also allows the members to enjoy themselves while they participate in Spanish activities.

Among the activities of the club were a Spanish dinner and also a talent show put on by its members. Also, Los Sodales sponsored a joint dance with the French and Latin clubs. A Spanish medal is given by the club to the most deserving student who has completed two years of Spanish.

Club leaders the first semester were Joyce Sharpe, president; David Boxley, vice-president; Eleanor Gaulin, secretary-treasurer; Bob Willcutts, social chairman; and Betty Groves, membership chairman. For the second semester the members chose Jim Miller, president; Nancy Weber, vice-president; Anne Robinson, secretary; Linda Kiracofe, treasurer; Bob Willcutts, social chairman; and Betty Groves, membership chairman.

A "jam session" seems to be on the menu of Phy Chem's Christmas party. Choosing their favorites are Jim Clark, Glady Morrell, Ed Warsaw, Marvin Hutsell, Dave Burg, Dave Bleeke, Mary Jo Bookout, Ron Scherer, Carolyn Both, Ala Nova Lynch, and Joanne Cole.

Phy-Chem Club

North Side's Phy-Chem Club is composed of students enrolled in either physics or chemistry classes who wish to further develop their interests in these sciences.

The outstanding event of the year for the Phy-Chem Club was their trip to the Infirmary in November, where they gave a program and furnished refreshments for the residents.

Officers elected for the first semester were Larry Lantz, president; David Bleeke, vice-president; Gladys Morrell, secretary; and Minton Ostertag, treasurer.

Leading the club for the second semester were David Bleeke, president; Ed Brown, vice-president; Carol Wyatt, secretary; and Jon Clifton, treasurer.

Mr. Sherman Pressler and Mr. Harold Thomas served as advisers for the club again this year.

Future Teachers

Nor-Gro Club put forth a great deal of effort this year to make the Future Teachers of North Side profit by its existence. Its purpose is to give students interested in teaching an opportunity to cultivate the needed qualities for teachers and also to help undecided students to choose their vocations.

A trip to Manchester College for an F.T.A. conference highlighted the year. In addition, students from other schools were entertained here to encourage them to start chapters of their own. Their after-game dance also brought entertainment for all. And, as always, F.T.A. was always ready to supply future teachers to step in as substitutes.

Globetrotters

Globetrotters Club promotes among its members a better understanding of people and their countries and governments. Highlighting the year's activities was the trip to Washington, D. C., which was sponsored by the club. This trip was open to all social science students and upperclassmen. The group was guided by the club advisers, Mr. Harry Young and Miss Katharine Rothenberger.

Officers elected for the fall semester were Carol Smith, president; Ron Scherer, vice-president; Sandra Schroeder, secretary; and Gloria Zimmerman, treasurer. Leading the club during the second semester were Carol Wyatt, president; Louise Ruchman, vice-president; Judy Meyer, secretary; and Larry Lantz, treasurer.

Helicon Club

Through its activities and the following of its themes, Helicon Club has provided an opportunity for its members to increase their literary knowledge. "Modern Classics" and "Life in These United States," this year's themes, were carried out through poetry and plays. A potluck at Nancy Leininger's and a Christmas party for the residents of the Allen County Infirmary highlighted the first semester; the Spring Tea and Senior Farewell climaxed the year's activities.

Officers for the first semester were Natalie Martin, president; Dave Burg, vice-president; Carol Wyatt, secretary; Bill Lee, treasurer; and Mary Schuelke and Alan McMahan, critics. Second term officers were Jack Bradshaw, president; Don Chambers, vice-president; Nancy Leininger, secretary; Dave Bleeke, treasurer, and Judy Bash and Ed Brown, critics.

Parmi Nos Amis

Parmi Nos Amis, or better known as French Club, is composed of students who have taken French.

The most important event in the year was "The Mardi Gras" on March 2. French Club also helped sponsor the annual language clubs' dance, which this year was called "Continental Capers."

The mettings of French Club are usually composed of outside speakers, skits and movies, or group discussions, and they end with delicious refreshments.

Officers for the first semester were Ann Nickerson, president; Beverly Holder, vice-president; Pat Fleming, secretary; Nancy Poling, treasurer; and Natalie Martin, social chairman.

Leading the club for the second semester were Sharon Nulf, president; Ruth Pontius, vice-president; Nancy Hobson, secretary; Beverly Holder, treasurer; and Alan McMahan, social chairman. Miss Frances Plumanns, who teaches French here at North, serves as the adviser for the club.

Upper Top—Seated are Carolyn Schinbeckler, Pat Rachel, Judy Harper, Sue Kowalczyk, Sandy Stephan, Jane Wingate, and Debby Hacker. Standing is Sandy Underhill.

Lower Top—Ann Nickerson is shown giving the gavel to the new prexy, Sharon Nulf. Looking on are Natalie Martin, Miss Frances Plumanns, Beverly Holder, Ruth Pontius, and Nancy Hobson.

Right—Talking it over are, seated, Kay Oliver, Margaret Doughty, Barbara Weaver, and Marlene Lecher. Standing is Gail Bowman.

Nature Club

The young Izaak Waltons of North need only an interest in the great outdoors to enjoy the activities provided by Nature Club. In the fields, forests, and waters of Indiana, these naturalists discover things of outstanding interest as they study the factors which make the great out-of-doors so wondrous.

When weather doesn't permit these nature lovers to conduct their field trips and hikes, films, hobbies, projects, and collections all serve to keep alive their interest until they can once again spend their hours hiking through the nearby fields in search of Nature's offspring.

Outstanding events in the club's yearly calendar include trips to such places of interest as the Izaak Walton grounds located on Cedar Creek, and public forests and parks in this locality.

Officers for the year included Marsha Hawk, president; Larry Lantz, vice-president; Sue Parker, secretary; Gaynol Marsh, treasurer; and Kathlyne Prairie, point recorder. Club advisers are Miss Vesta Thompson and Mr. Clifford Ott.

Preparing for the club's annual Christmas party are Marvin Hutsell, Minton Ostertag, Ellen Terry, Kathleen Prairie, and Carolene Kyler.

Right—Miss Vesta Thompson, center, shows a piece of unusual wood to Claudette Bobay, Ed Warsaw, Sue Parker, Tom Koontz, and Ann Wilding.

National Thespians

Two of North Side's top honorary societies are National Forensic League and National Thespian Society. N.F.L. is a group that "specializes" in debate, while National Thespian Society "specializes" in dramatics.

National Forensic League is open to anyone interested in speech work, especially debaters. Mr. Albert Coil is the sponsor of this organization, and members have earned 20 points by giving speeches or engaging in debate.

Newest of the many organizations at the Big Dome is the National Thespian Society. North Side has had the honor of being the first high school in Fort Wayne to be chartered in this important society. Honor students in dramatics are eligible for membership, and Mr. James Purkhiser is club sponsor.

Grinning broadly are, sitting, Ginny Coffman, Lolly Luhman, Bev Holder, Debby Hacker, Sandra Schroeder, and Ann Bouillet. Standing are Norm Hessert and Carol Smith, while listening in from the rear are Mr. Coil, adviser, and Mr. Pressler, honorary member of the club.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll, the national journalism honorary society for upperclassmen, is the goal set by every student who is journalistically inclined. Candidates must be in the upper third of their class and have done superior work in writing, editing, or busniess management. They are selected from newspaper and yearbook staffs by publication advisors and must be approved by the executive secretary of the organization.

Another honorary group for North Side journalists is 1500 Club, whose members are taken from the Northerner and Legend staffs. A student is eligible for membership after earning 1500 points; bronze, silver, gold, and gold-jeweled pins, and school letters are earned by the members. Tihs group sponsors the annual journalism banquet, which was held at W&D's Baer Field Restaurant this year.

Right—Nine student journalists were honored with membership in Quill and Scroll this year. They are, front, Janet Fuhrman, Gale Wiesmer, Norman Hessert, Jean Cour, and Sandra Schroeder. Standing: Nancy Poling, Jerry Gaff, David Burg, and Marilyn Hayes.

The Northerner

The Northerner Staff, headed for the entire year by Nancy Poling, has produced another Medalist Award winning paper for North Side. The award is presented by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association to the most outstanding high school papers in the United States.

Assisting Nancy in major staff positions throughout the year were Jerry Gaff and Dave Burg, managing editors; Dave Burg and Carlene Hanson, news editors; Carlene Hanson and Gwen Myers, feature editors; and Jean Barker and Jinny Wedler, copy editors. Others were Jack Koenig and Phil Hosler, sports editors; Jinny Wedler, Jannie Thomas and Bobbi Bash, exchange editors; Jack Cruse, Steve Perfect, and Jack Huffman, photographers; and Bill Willcutts, point recorder.

The business end of the Northerner was handled by Marilyn Hayes and Sandra Schroeder, ad managers; Shirley Callihan and Marilyn Hayes, business managers; and Louise Ruchman and Barb Weaver, circulation managers.

A familiar scene every Friday morning is the one pictured at the left, for that's when the homeroom agents pick up and deliver The Northerner to over 1,000 subscribers. Nearly every student in school supports the paper by subscribing or by working for the paper in one of the many capacities.

The 1954 Legend

The 1954 Legend is the result of many long hours of planning and preparation. The work began last July when editor Norm Hessert and assistant, Janet Fuhrman, attended a high school journalism clinic at Indiana University.

Early in the school year Mr. Norman Ballinger, adviser, and the editors chose the staff. Major positions were filled by Jean Cour, circulation manager; Louise Ruchman, senior editor; Joan Hudson, underclass editor; Jim Luellen, sports editor; Dave Burg, activities editor; Ginny Coffman, artist; and Ann Bouillet, junior staff member who will edit the 1955 Legend.

This yearbook has attempted to capture and record some of the year's highlights. The staff sincerely hopes that the 1954 Legend will help you relive one of the best years of your life.

Lower left—Jobs on a yearbook vary from taking pictures to writing and proofing copy. Here's a gang who made much of this book possible. Seated are Louise Ruchman, Mary Jo Bookout, Jerry Gaff, and Virginia Coffman. Standing are Jack Cruse, Marilyn Hayes, Jim Luellen, Connie Shideler, and Joan Hudson. Jean Cour and Carolyn Reiter were absent.
